For more than fifty years has PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER stood the test against all remedies prepared to eradicate pain, and today stands at the head of the list among the medicines that are so essential to keep at hand in the home.

It is not a new fangle remedy nor do the proprietors lay claim to any wonderful revelation of the ingredients that enter into the manufacture of this ever popular remedy.

It is perfectly harmless, you need have no fear of becoming habitually inclined to its use.

For Colic, Cramps, Dysentery, Colds, and all painful affections, a few doses will certainly give relief. You cannot afford to be without a bottle in the house.

Your forefathers used it and found it beneficial.

Why experiment with some remedy that is new and its effect on the system unknown?

It has many rivals but no equal.

The new 35c. size contains over double the quantity of the 25c. size.

KEEPING HIM IN STYLE.

Pres'dent McKinley Brooker Was a Sore

Pickaniumy Jim's mother stood in the door of her residence, calling at the top of her voice:

"Pres'dent McKinley! Whah is yoh, Pres'dent McKinley? Ef I lays mer fis'
on yoh back, yoh'll change yoh man-

A man who was passing stopped in surprise and inquired:
"What's the matter, auntie?"
"Is yoh name Pres'dent McKinley?"

she inquired in an intensely supercilious tone.

"No. And I'm afraid you won't get any answer to that name, either.

"I won't, won't I? Yoh jes' wait a minute." She started down the street, calling as she went, and presently emerged from a side entrance with a boy, small and swarthy, who dragged his feet reluctantly in response to her reso-lute clutch.

"Stan up on de do'step an listen ter me," she commanded, shaking her forefinger at him.

The boy obeyed, and she said impressively, "Whut's yoh name?"

After a brief but severe struggle with his memory, he answered, "Pres'dent McKinley Brooker."

"An why didn't yoh answer ter dat name when I done call it in de fus' place?"

"'Case, mammy, I done fohgot it." "Well, yoh's gwinter hab one mo' chance ter fohgit it. Den I'ze gwinter git a peach tree limb an write it all ovuh yoh back. Go 'long in de kitchen an wait tell I comes. It's hahd wu'k raisin dat chile right," she commented to the interested stranger; "mighty

"I don't see how he came to have such an odd name."

"I has some fam'ly pride, an I'ze will-in ter take de trouble ter live up ter it. All de cullud folks 'round hyuh dat is anybody is gwinter had one baby in de fam'ly named aftuh de pres'dent. When dat chile was born, I christened him 'Pres'dent Ha'hson Brooker.' Up ter las' fo'th o' Mahch his name wuz 'Pres'dent Cleveland Brooker.' Now Ize habbin a time ter make 'im re'lize dat he's 'Pres'dent McKinley Brooker.' I'ze at a pow'ful disadvantage, 'case dah's only one o' him. It's mo' worriment dan trainin a pup ter keep dat boy f'um goin clean out o' style."—Washington Star.

Another Matter.

An Irish priest had labored hard with one of his flock to induce him to give up the habit of drinking, but the man was obdurate.

"I tell you, Michael," said the priest, "whisky is your worst enemy, and you should keep as far away from it as you

"My enemy, is it, father?" responded Michael. "And it was your riverence's silf that was tellin us in the pulpit only last Sunday to love our inimies!"

"So I was, Michael," rejoined the priest, "but was I anywhere telling you to swallow 'em?"—Youth's Companion.

"As a Lenten penance," said the spiritual director, "I recommend that you scrub the steps of the church edi-fice."

"How lovely!" said to herself the frivolous lady of high social standing.
"At the same time, it is essential that not a newspaper shall be notified."
The light of high resolve faded from the beautiful brow, leaving the lady in a drear, gray mood.—Cincinnati En-

Giving Its Value.

"That was a magnificent gown that your wife wore last night," said the merchant.

"It ought to be a magnificent one," "Cost a good deal, did it?"

"I should say so," answered the lawyer. "Two office consultations, an opinion, a murder case and a confession of judgment."—Chicago Post.
